Thanksgiving Holy Mass

We will celebrate Thanksgiving Holy Mass this Thursday November 26 at 9:00Am. We have so much to thank God for. Parishioners are urged to bring fresh foods and or non perishable food items. Proceeds will benefit Catholic Charities of the of Diocese.

School Accreditation

As some of you may have been aware, our school's accreditation was held this Monday, November 16th through Wednesday, November 18th. We are proud to announce that based on our detailed Self-Study, interviews with our faculty, students and parents, the MSA review team has made the recommendation that our school be re-accredited. This was a great achievement and we are so thankful to all those who assisted us with achieving this goal.

From the desk of Fr. Boniface

My Dear Parishioners,

Today, the last Sunday in the liturgical year, we celebrate and confess Christ as our king. The readings invite us to reflect on the kind of king Christ is and what it means for us to truly say that we belong to his kingdom.

The gospel that is being used is one of the most vivid parables Jesus ever spoke and the lesson is crystal clear that God will judge us in accordance with our reaction to human need. His judgment will not depend on the knowledge we have amassed or the fame we have acquired or the fortune we have gained or the success we have achieved but, on the help, and love that we have given for our neighbor. For in the Last Judgement no mention whatsoever is made of people's church beliefs but only of the practical help they gave or did not give to the needy and the disadvantaged of this world. The specific actions mentioned are (1) feeding the hungry, (2) giving drink to the thirsty, (3) clothing the naked, (4) sheltering the homeless, (5) visiting those in prison, and (6) taking care of the sick. Add (7) burying the dead, and you have the traditional Seven Corporal Works of Mercy. This is our number one moral obligation as Christians. For whatever we do to the least of these needy children of God, these brothers and sisters of Jesus, we do to Jesus Himself. Blessed Feast of Christ the King. Let Him reign in our hearts and lives!

Prayer of Saint Francis

Lord make me an instrument of your peace,
Where there is hatred let me sow love.
Where there is injury, pardon.
Where there is doubt, faith.
Where there is despair, hope.
Where there is darkness, light.
And where there is sadness, joy.

O divine master grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console;
to be understood as to understand;
To be loved as to love
For it is in giving that we receive-
and it's in pardoning that we are pardoned.
And it's in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen.
