...As soon as circumstances permit however, it is necessary and urgent to return to the normality of Christian life, which has the church building as its home and the celebration of the liturgy, especially the Eucharist.

- We cannot be without the banquet of the Eucharist,
- We cannot be without the Christian community, the family of the Lord.
- We cannot be without the house of the Lord, which is our home.
- We cannot be without the Lord's Day, without Sunday which gives light and meaning to the successions of days of work and to family and social responsibilities...

From the desk of Fr. Boniface

My Dear Parishioners,

Today is the 29th Sunday in Ordinary time. This is also World Mission Sunday. World Mission Sunday is a day set aside for the Catholic Church throughout the world to publicly renew its commitment to the missionary command of Jesus. A day of prayer and propaganda of missions. In an effort to entrap Jesus and arouse the people against him. The Pharisees and the Herodians approached him and asked him a tricky question, which demands one to take a stand - "Is it lawful to pay the census tax to Caesar or not?" Two things they are looking for: 1) to get Jesus to oppose taxes and earn the anger of the Romans; and 2) to get him to support taxes and arouse the wrath of the Jews. Recognizing their bad intention to entrap him, he asks them to show him the coin and then says, "Whose image is this and whose inscription?" They reply, "Caesar's." Then he gives them his masterly answer, "Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God." This is the stand which Jesus takes. How often to do call on God's wisdom in the face of a difficult or awkward situation? "For at that time the Holy Spirit will teach you what you should say" (Luke 21:12). How often do you rely on the Holy Spirit to guide you? Above and beyond, the response of Jesus to the Pharisees and the Herodians is an invitation for us to embrace our total belonging to God. Just as the image of Caesar stamped on a Roman coin indicates that the coin belongs to Caesar, the image of God stamped on every human being asserts that each one of us belongs to God. Can we then give ourselves to God, all that is ours without holding back anything, especially on this World Mission Sunday?

Prayer of Saint Francis

Lord make me an instrument of your peace,
Where there is hatred let me sow love.
Where there is injury, pardon.
Where there is doubt, faith.
Where there is despair, hope.
Where there is darkness, light.
And where there is sadness, joy.

O divine master grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console;
to be understood as to understand;
To be loved as to love
For it is in giving that we receive-and it's in pardoning that we are pardoned.
And it's in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen.
